After 17 yrs a soldier, he finally sees Corregidor

By Nikko Dizon

CORREGIDOR—IT WAS THE first time in his 17 years in the Philippine Air Force that Sgt. Arnel Tabladillo had set foot on this battle-scarred island.

Tabladillo, 40, said his late father, a World War II veteran, had wanted him to become a soldier and told him of stories about Corregidor.

"Now I've finally seen the place that he always spoke about," Tabladillo said in Filipino as he looked out the jeepney driving him and

Rice import quotas lifted

But private traders must pay 50% tariff

By Christine O. Avendaño

AS PART OF ITS EFFORT TO ensure an adequate supply of affordable rice in the country, Malacañang has lifted the quota on rice importation by private traders.

President Macapagal-Arroyo approved the lifting of the import quota on rice and corn, "but the tariff must be paid," Cerge Remonde, head of the Presidential Management Staff, said yesterday.

The private sector is allowed to import a maximum of 300,000 metric tons of rice annually. But private traders have imported less than 10 percent of that volume over the past two years because of high world prices and the tariff.

The bulk of Philippine rice imports is accounted for by the National Food Authority (NFA).

DENR urged to revoke pact with SBMA

SAYING THE CONSTRUCTION OF condominiums in the Subic rainforest had brought matters to a head, Zamboanga del Sur Rep. Antonio Cerilles yesterday urged Environment Secretary Lito Atienza to revoke the agreement granting the Subic Bay Metropolitan Authority the power to regulate the free port.

Cerilles, the environment chief in the Estrada administration, called on Atienza to re-exert the authority of the Department of Environment and Natural Resources over the Subic Freeport.

Gov't taps Church in distribution of NFA rice

By Jeannette I. Andrade

THE DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE has tapped the Catholic Church in the distribution of government-subsidized rice, assuring it a weekly allocation of at least 50,000 sacks for the poor in various parishes in Metro Manila.

The distribution of rice through the Church network is one of the measures that the government has taken to make the cereal available to the poor amid the soaring price of the staple.

Distributing rice to pupils in public schools, adopting rain harvesting technology and using hybrid rice are the other measures that various sectors have proposed to avert a rice shortage.

The allocation and other issues were discussed yesterday in a closed-door meeting between Agriculture Secretary Arthur Yap and Auxiliary Bishop Broderick Pabillo, chair of the National Secretariat of Social Action (Nassa), an arm of the Catholic Bishops' Conference of the Philippines (CBCP).

The meeting was held at Manila Hotel.

It was agreed that the pilot area would be the dioceses of Metro Manila.

POLICE AND ALERT BARANGAY watchmen arrested eight people—including three teenagers—suspected of transferring government-subsidized rice into commercial bags in Pasig City in a continuing crackdown on suspected hoarders and price manipulators.

In a separate move, the Bureau of Immigration (BI) yesterday said it had dispatched a team to Isabela to check on reports of the alleged existence of a Chinese syndicate cornering the rice supply in the province.

High inflation seen to alter First Holdings' dividend yield

By Danilo L. Lucas

THE PRICING AND OFFERING periods for the preferred shares offer of First Philippine Holdings Corp. have been pushed back by a few days to allow dividend yields to more accurately reflect market prices.

At the same time, the issue's managers said the timing of the offer was also adjusted to allow more underwriters to participate in the P5-billion exercise, possibly resulting in a wider distribution among buyers.

First Holdings, which is controlled by the Lopez family, said it had decided to move the price-setting date for the preferred shares' dividend rate from April 4 to April 18.

The notice of the issue's final offer price was also moved back by the same duration, while the offer period will now start on April 14 instead of April 11.
